Course and Program Structure

The Course and Program Structure is divided into Categories at its top; each Category is divided into Classes; while each Class is divided into Disciplines, each Discipline contains a group of Courses and/or Programs. The Category; generally speaking represents a broad range of major experience, knowledge and activities that may be covered by a business line or a Business Unit. The Class covers a group of related experience, knowledge and activities. The Discipline covers a group of specific experience, knowledge and activities that is covered by different Courses and/or Programs.

Please refer to the Course and Program Structure Excel Form for more details.
